Dear Parents/Carers,

We are writing to inform you that a bake sale will take place on Friday 9th December, on the playground, at 3:15pm. A small group of Year 6 girls have decided to raise money for a charity called Lumos, which was founded by J.K Rowling.

Lumos exists to light a path to a brighter future for many children in orphanages around the world. Their vision is to end the hardship for orphaned children so every child can enjoy the right to grow up in a safe, loving family where they thrive.

In this bake sale, all allergies and intolerances will be covered. As well as there being plenty of sweet treats for you to indulge your sweet tooth in, all of the money raised for this brilliant cause will go to Lumos.

All of the cookies, cakes and other treats will be on sale for 50p per cake.

Thank you,

The Year 6 girls
