Dear Parent/Carers,

World Book Day: Thursday 7th March 2024

To celebrate World Book Day on Thursday 7th March we would like all the children and staff to come to school in their pyjamas for the day, ready for a bedtime story! It would be great if the children could also bring their favourite bedtime story with them to share during the day.

As an extra special way to celebrate and promote World Book Day this year, Mrs McShane, our English lead will be organising some extra special reading activities through the day. At present, we have planned:

- An author visit for reception, Year 3 and 4 from Rachel Morrisroe
Reception children will be exploring the book 'The Yeticorn'. As well as reading and a quiz the children will be making Yeticorn tails! Please can we ask that each child if possible brings in a full toilet roll for this activity.
- Stop, drop and read. The bell will ring at various intervals throughout the day and the children have to stop, grab a book (this could be their bedtime story if they have brought one) and take it anywhere in school to read. The children will be allowed to "stop, drop and read" in the staff room, the hall and even Mrs Badgers office through the day. The children will sit and read their chosen book in this area for a short time before returning back to the classroom to carry on with lessons. Stop, drop and read will take place a couple of times through the day.
- Book scavenger hunt involving school staff around the building
- Friends of Bunbury have also organised a competition for World Book day. It is for the children to design a book cover for their favourite book and a book from their imagination. Children will be sent home with a sheet to complete the activity on which is £2 to enter.

We look forward to seeing all your favourite bedtime reads.

Kind regards
